DISTINGUISHED SERVICE AWARD

The Distinguished Service Award recognizes an outstanding RID member who has made a major contribution in his/her area of expertise and has influenced the profession on local, state and national levels.

RECIPIENTS WILL BE PRESENTED WITH:

- a bronze and granite sculpture by Mr. Jan Rawecki
- full registration package, lodging, and transportation to the next National Conference

CRITERIA:

Failure to follow the rules below will render the application void.

The nominee must have been a Certified member in good standing for the past 5 years who is not a current member of the Board of Directors or the Scholarship and Awards Committee.

Letters of nomination must include details of the nominee's background, experience and involvement with the profession. A minimum of 25 RID voting members' signatures is required for each nomination.

8 copies of documentation for each Committee member, the Board liaison, and the National Office staff representative must be submitted. All material will be sent to the National Office where the staff representative will send copies to the Committee members and Board liaison.

CYCLE:

Nomination material must be postmarked by March 1.

Awards will be announced at the National Conference.
