NIC INTERVIEW AND PERFORMANCE EXAM ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS

Applicants for the NIC Interview and Performance exam must meet both the Knowledge Requirement and the Educational Requirement.

Knowledge Requirement: The Knowledge Requirement is met when at least one of the following is true:

- I have taken and passed the NIC Knowledge Exam within the last 5 years
- I am currently a certified member of RID and hold at least one of the following certifications: IC, TC, CSC, MCSC, CI, CT, NIC, NIC Advanced, NIC Master, NAD III, NAD IV, NAD V
(Note: the Ed:K-12 certification does NOT fulfill this requirement)

Educational Requirement: The Educational Requirement is met when at least one of the following is true:

- I have submitted my college degree to RID and my RID account shows that I have fulfilled the Educational Requirements for Performance Exams.
- I hold an associate's degree or higher in any field and have attached a copy of my college transcript to this application.
- I do not have an associate's degree or higher, but I have attached a completed Alternative Pathway to Eligibility application to this exam application. (The Alternative Pathway application form, along with an FAQ, sample form, and guide to filling out the form is available on the RID Web site, www.rid.org)

EXAM SCHEDULING

1. When you have met all the eligibility requirements to take this exam (Knowledge Requirement, Educational Requirement, and payment in full), an Authorization To Test (ATT) Letter will be activated in your RID account in "Track Tests" under the "Testing & CEU Information" section.
2. Once you have access to your ATT Letter through your RID account, you may contact the Local Test Administrator (LTA) at the Supersite of your choice to schedule your exam appointment.
3. Exam administration and exam results are confidential.
4. The RID National Office does not schedule performance exams.

SPECIAL ACCOMMODATIONS

If you have a disability or need that requires special accommodation, official verification and documentation of the need for accommodation MUST accompany this application. Please submit all three of the following:

1. A written request from you stating the disability or impairment, its potential impact on testing performance, and the requested accommodation(s).
2. A photocopy of your government-issued ID card (such as a driver's license) that clearly identifies you as the requestor of the special accommodation(s)
3. Documentation of a formally diagnosed and qualified disability by a qualified professional who has provided evaluation or treatment for you. The professional must be a licensed healthcare provider who has been personally involved in the diagnosis or treatment of the disability for which you are requesting accommodation, or an educational or testing professional who has previously provided you with testing accommodations similar to those requested. The documentation letter you obtain from that professional must be on official stationery and include the following information:
 - identification of the specific disability/diagnosis
 - a brief description of the disability
 - the approximate date the disability was first diagnosed/identified
 - identification of the tests/protocols used to confirm the diagnosis
 - a description of past accommodations made for the disability, if applicable
 - an explanation of the need for the testing accommodation(s)
 - the professional's signature, title, and contact information

RID is committed to protecting the privacy and confidentiality of the candidate's condition. However, sufficient documentation is required to be able to evaluate and provide necessary accommodations. This information will not be shared or released outside of the exam administration.

NIC INTERVIEW AND PERFORMANCE EXAM AGREEMENT

IMPORTANT: Please read the following statement and description of the NAD-RID NIC exams. All applicants must sign below to acknowledge that they have read and will abide by the following agreement.

I understand and agree that all materials developed and used in the exam that I am applying to take are the copyrighted property of the National Association of the Deaf (NAD) and the Registry of Interpreters for the Deaf, Inc.
