

Wisconsin Registry of Interpreters for the Deaf

2011 WisRID Fall Conference: Call for Interpreters and Captionists "Oh the Places You'll Go"

CALL FOR INTERPRETERS

The 2011 WisRID Fall Conference Planning Committee is accepting applications for both hearing and Deaf conference interpreters. The conference will be held November 4-6, 2011, in Stevens Point, WI. See below for a complete list of details and requirements.

REQUIREMENTS FOR CONSIDERATION

- RID or NAD Certification
- Letter of interest stating hours of availability as well as strengths and weaknesses
- Resume highlighting previous conference platform interpreting experience
- Letter of reference from a conference coordinator
- Please submit documents electronically to: Amy Fryman, WisRID Fall Conference Interpreter Chair: fallconferenceinterpreters@gmail.com
- Include full contact information (most of our correspondence will be done via email)
- Those without previous conference experience will be considered when application is accompanied with two 10 minute samples of unrehearsed conference level material. Please contact the Interpreter Chair for specifications.

We are looking for qualified hearing and Deaf interpreters to join our team. Interpreters are needed for workshops, board meeting, group discussions, entertainment and general sessions. We strongly encourage Deaf interpreters to apply with your preferred hearing team in order to achieve an optimal teaming experience.
